

Agreement on the Establishment of a Teaching Internship Base at Kunming University

Party A: Kunming University

Party B:

Teaching internship is an essential practical teaching component in higher education for cultivating qualified specialized talents. In order to comprehensively improve educational quality and foster advanced professionals with practical spirit and innovative capabilities, both parties, based on the principles of mutual support, resource sharing, and common development, have reached the following agreement:

Responsibilities and Obligations of Party A

1. Leverage the university's strengths to give priority to providing technical support and services to Party B; provide training for Party B's employees and deliver instruction in relevant professional knowledge.
2. Based on Party B's needs, give priority to recommending outstanding graduates to Party B.
3. Be responsible for formulating the internship outline and internship plan, and for assigning internship supervisors.
4. Submit the internship plan to Party B one month prior to the internship, discuss and finalize the implementation plan with Party B, and jointly organize its execution.
5. During the internship period, Party A shall be responsible for the ideological and political education as well as safety education of the interns. Party A's students must comply with relevant laws and regulations and abide by Party B's management rules and regulations.

Responsibilities and Obligations of Party B

1. Without affecting Party B's normal operations, provide internship conditions and living conveniences for students in accordance with the requirements of Party A's teaching internship plan.

2. In accordance with Party A's internship plan, propose specific internship arrangements (requirements), and assign students to appropriate positions for learning and training.
3. Assign professional and technical personnel as well as managerial staff to serve as instructors, guiding students in completing their internship tasks.
4. Provide feedback to Party A on the students' internship performance and issue an evaluation of their internship.
5. Work jointly with Party A's supervising teachers to be responsible for the safety management of students during the internship period.

To strengthen cooperation, both Party A and Party B shall regularly exchange information, summarize and share experiences, ensure the long-term and healthy development of the teaching internship base, and jointly contribute to the development of education.

This agreement shall be valid for a period of ____ years. It shall be effective from the date of signing until ____ (year) ____ (month) ____ (day). Upon expiration, the agreement may be renewed upon mutual consent of both parties.

This agreement is executed in two copies, with each party holding one copy.

Any matters not covered herein shall be resolved through consultation between Party A and Party B.
